

CREMATED MAN FACES WIFE WHO WANTS ALIMONY

Incineration Did Not Come Off for Lack of Corpse.

According to Frederick Kohl, a retired ironworker, the best way to avoid membership in the alimony club is by the pleasant process of cremation. He hit upon this novel plan, by which he was to escape paying his wife, Mrs. Louisa Kohl, $7 a week, a few days ago, but through the efforts of Court Officer Pudinsky, of Long Island City, his scheme came to naught before Magistrate Smith today.

Mrs. Kohl says that Frederick is a skilled ironworker, capable of earning $3 a week, but that he has become an anarchist and an "affinity-chaser" and therefore works no more. She lives at No. 207 Park place, Astoria, and on Feb. 14, accompanied by her lawyer, Vincent Woytisek, she appeared before Magistrate Connelly, in Long Island City, and secured a warrant for her husband's arrest on charges of abandonment and non-support.

"He will not live at home," she explained. "He believes in free love and he had the nerve to bring some of his affinites to my house for a party, but that was where I drew the line. Affinity, indeed! And him with that shape!"

Kohl is not much over 5 feet in height and he weighs about 200 pounds. The husband was arrested at No. 446 East Eighty-seventh street, Manhattan, which he gave as his address, and Mrs. Catharine Wylant, at the same address, went on his bond for $50. He was then given until Feb. 26 to make or produce a bond for $50 to insure payment of $7 a week to his wife and two children.

BANKER'S ASSASSIN CRAZED BY INJURY

Coroner Acitelli Says Man
Shot by Pati Was Victim of a Joker.

Investigation by Coroner Acitelli into the shooting of Francesco Pelliato by Pasquale Pati, the banker, of No. 240 Elizabeth street, last Saturday, has demonstrated that Pelliato was alone in his effort to kill the banker.

"Pelliato," Coroner Acitelli said today, "has been insane for nearly a year. He lived at No. 241 Elizabeth street, across the street from Pati's, and worked in the East River tunnels. He was injured in an accident and sued the company. He lost the suit, and this fact, coupled with his injury, drove him insane."

"Some practical joker told him Pati was responsible for his losing the suit, and he started out to kill the banker. The suggestion that Pelliato was a member of a Black Hand society is all wish."

Pelliato is in St. Vincent's Hospital, hovering between life and death. Three of nine shots fired at him by Banker Pati and his son-in-law, Luigi Cartier, are in his body.

FALLIERES GOING TO LONDON.

PARIS, March 11.—It was officially announced today that President Fallieres will visit London in the second week of May. He will be accompanied by Foreign Minister Pichon.

"I'LL FILL YOU WITH LEAD," WROTE WIFE

Ashland Says She Also Called Him a Sneaking Mollycoddle.

"If you fail to produce by Dec. 1, I will fill your carcass full of lead. When you return to home, sweet home! all this will have to say is 'our father who art in heaven.'"

"So mamma sent you to the lawyers for protection, did she? Well, you are a sweet, obedient little boy."

Does she suck the covers round you?

"You are a lying, sneaking, miserable, crawling mollycoddle."

"There is not a jury on earth that would convict a light-colored American girl like me for shooting a low-down foreigner like you."

The above are extracts from the complete letter written by Mrs. Lillian B. Ashland, according to the affidavit of her husband made in his suit for absolute divorce. He instituted the proceedings soon after receiving these missives, which were mailed from New Orleans on his wife's arrival there. Ashland said he had given her $50 to pay the expenses of the trip. Later she learned, he said, that she was spending her time and his money in the Southern city with a man known only to him as "Mr. Martin."

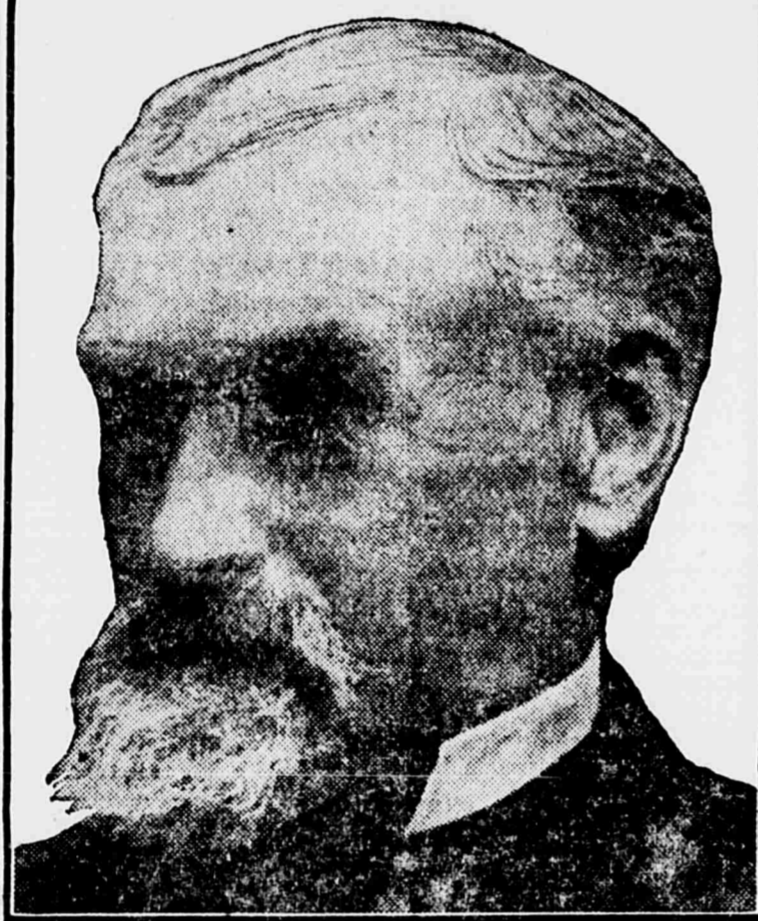

Ashland says his wife was Miss Lillian Bayless, a Brooklyn heiress. They were married in December, 1907. When they began housekeeping they took in boarders. His wife, he says, was two friends with their guests, who were Warner Hill and O. E. Hughes. Mrs. Ashland, who will defend the suit, made application today in the Kings County Supreme Court for alimony of $15 a week and a counsel fee of $50. Judge Crane took the papers in the case.

ROOSEVELT RIGHT IN BROWNSVILLE MIX

WASHINGTON, March 11.—In connection with the report of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs on the Brownsville riot, which was made to the Senate today, the President transmitted a message in which he said that the facts set forth in his order dismissing the negro soldiers had been substantiated by the testimony before the Committee.

He recommended in his message that the time for the reinstatement of the discharged soldiers, which has expired, be extended for a year in order to permit the President to reinstate any of the discharged men who did not fail within the terms of his dismissal. Senator Warren presented the report of the Committee on behalf of the majority, and Senator Foraker the views of the minority.

Prominent Prohibition Lawyer Praises the Elixir of Life.

Mr. Charles D. Ainger, a well-known lawyer of Andover, Ohio, who has just celebrated his 81st birthday and manages a business, has been completely cured of acute dyspepsia and indigestion by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Mr. Ainger is a Prohibitionist and is opposed to the sale and use of intoxicants, but says he can conscientiously recommend Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a great medicine.

Mr. Ainger writes—I am 81 years old and am still attending to an extensive business without any assistance whatever. I have been all my life opposed to the sale and use of intoxicants. I have been a sufferer from acute dyspepsia and indigestion. I have recently commenced the use of Duffy's Malt Whiskey as a medicine. I know that it has been very beneficial to my health and firmly believe that it has prolonged my existence. I can conscientiously recommend its use as a medicine.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark the "Old Chemist" on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1. Write Dr. R. Curran, Consulting Physician, for a free illustrated medical booklet and free advice. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

A Comprehensive Exhibit of Spring Dress Fabrics

A collection of dress goods which, like this of ours, covers every staple and novelty with a full line of colors in each, is of course too large to catalogue in full. The list below is merely suggestive:

Voiles, in Pekin stripes, silk chevron stripe, silk, satin and shadow stripes, silk-and-wool, satin stripes with checks, hairline stripes and cluster stripes.
Panama Weaves, Imperial Serge, Storm Serge, Prunella Cloth; in satin stripes, wide wales, herringbone patterns and woven chevron stripes.

Striped Suitings of a dozen patterns and twice a dozen colors and combinations.
Black Embroidered Voiles and silk-checked, embroidered black chiffon voiles.
French Cotton Voiles in a number of plain, striped and embroidered and dot effects.

A Suggestive List of Novelty Silks

The list is of course only partial—a Spring collection which could be described in this space would not be worth describing.

We show complete lines of colors and patterns in these, among other imported and American silks:

Voile bordure satin harlequin
Voile bordure satin tresses
Pente coquette boule imprimé
Voile bordure quadrille pois
